

Reebok GRAND PRIX

Scholastic Events to be contested at the 2009 Reebok Grand Prix:

Scholastic Boys Events	Scholastic Girls Events
4x400m Relay	4x100m Relay
4x800m Relay	4x400m Relay
Invitational 100m	Invitational 800m
Invitational 800m

Scholastic-relay qualification process for the 2009 Reebok Grand Prix:

Teams can gain entrance into the Reebok Grand Prix by attending a qualifying event (listed below) and securing an automatic qualifying position. (These teams will earn an invitation pending clearance from their local state federation.)

Event	Facility	Location	Date	Qualifying Teams
New York Relays	Icahn Stadium	Randall's Island, NY	April 18, 2009	3
St. Anthony's Invite	St. Anthony's HS	South Huntington, NY	May 1, 2009	1
Loucks Games	White Plains HS	White Plains, NY	May 9, 2009	1

The remaining positions will be selected by invitation, no later than May 18.

Scholastic Invitational Boys' 100m, 800m and Girls' 800m qualification process:

The Scholastic Invitational Boys' 100m, 800m and Girls' 800m fields are invitation-only events. Coaches interested in nominating an athlete for possible entry should contact Paul Moser via email at moser@globalathletics.com.

NOTE:

1. The scholastic portion of the 2009 Reebok Grand Prix will have a National Federation of High School (NFHS) sanction. Athletes will be expected to compete for their respective High School and club teams will not be permitted.
2. Participation in qualifying events will be taken into account during the selection process.
3. Athletes will not be allowed to double in any of the events without prior approval from the meet organizers.
4. Only one school can be represented per relay event.
5. There are no limits on how many times a team may attempt to secure an automatic qualifier.
6. Participation in qualifying event is not mandatory to gain entrance into the 2009 Reebok Grand Prix.

All scholastic inquires: contact Paul Moser moser@globalathletics.com.